Short History of Hospital.

The Sale and Brooklands War Memorial Hospital was founded, after more than two years' discussion and deliberation, by all creeds and classes in the district. Owing to the abnormal cost of a new building, the present house and grounds were bought and adapted to provide one male and one female ward, each with three beds and one cot; one maternity ward with two beds; one private ward; an operating theatre; a mortuary; staff accommodation for matron, three nurses and two maids.

The hospital was opened on August 31st, 1921, by the Countess of Stamford, and was dedicated as a memorial of those in Sale and Brooklands who fell in the Great War. The culmination of this aspect of the work was reached on May 25th, 1923, when the Memorial Stone over the front entrance was publicly unveiled by Major M. G. Bird, D.S.O.

Members of the Sale District Nursing Association joined the Hospital Board, thus enabling district nursing to be co-ordinated with in- and out-patient work without friction or overlapping.

The first extension, comprising maternity and labour wards, bathroom, lavatory, pantry, linen room, office, and separate entrance was completed in January, 1925. In 1927 a small staff sitting room was added.

Finance.

Great effort has been expended to maintain the subscription list. Mr. Crosby, the House Chairman, and fourteen ladies, have collected 724 subscriptions and donations, making with 70 amounts in the general and special lists, 794 separate sums collected in the year. The size of this list compares favourably with those obtained in much larger districts, and is entirely due to the laborious day by day work of the collectors, to whom the Board tenders very special thanks. The decrease of £91 in patients' payments is due to the smaller number of private ward £5 5s. cases.

The cost of living has not fallen during the year. Fortunately little repairing and decorating has been necessary, and the fine summer has made fuel economy a pleasure. These two factors combined with careful scrutiny and the loyal co-operation of the Matron and staff, have balanced the decrease in subscriptions and patients' payments by a saving in ordinary expenditure of £160.

Special Efforts.

The Sale and Ashton-on-Mersey 1927 Carnival Committee was able, in spite of the weather handicap, to give £596 6s. 7d., of which £190 was earmarked for endowment. This makes a grand total from the same source of £1,230 endowment fund, and £3,351 10s. 3d. general fund, an achievement for which no thanks can be adequate.

The annual American Tea was again a great success, and made the record sum of £131 15s. 2d. Members of the V.A.D. Cheshire, 100 again provided a stall, and useful help was given by the Girl Guides. The presence of the Hospital's opener, the Countess of Stamford, was much appreciated, and all present were pleased to see so many old patients with their bonny "hospital" babies.

Mrs. Charles Taylor, assisted by the ladies of the Committee, organised a most pleasant and profitable Bridge Drive in St. Paul's Schools, kindly lent by the Vicar and Wardens. It is hoped to make this at least an annual affair. Mr. John Clarke, of Ashton-on-Mersey, generously passed on to the Hospital part of a special honorarium, and handsome donations have again been received from the Sale and Ashton Traders Association, Sale Golf Club, Sale and Brooklands War Memorial Football Cup Competition, the Jackson's Boat Bowling Club, the Cecilian Dance Band, and the St. Paul's Social Club. The Sale Swimming Club has made two efforts resulting in a gift of more than £22, and Mr. Andrews of the Bridge Inn, Dane Road, has again helped his smoke-room customers to collect £7 17s. 6d. To all these the Board offers most grateful thanks.

Acknowledgments.

Mrs. Benton, Miss Knowles and Miss M. Marriott have resigned their work as collectors. Their places have been taken by Mrs. A. Taylor, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. Mather, and Miss C. Marriott. To all these ladies the Board is greatly indebted, and appeals for yet more workers. The Board thanks the Hon. Accountant, Mr. J. B. Hallewell, the Hon. Auditors, Messrs. Boyer, Thwaites & Co., the Hon. Architect, Mr. R. J. McBeath, J.P., the other honorary officers, the collectors, the subscribers and donors of money and gifts in kind, including the places of worship, the clubs and societies of the district; the Manchester Corporation, the Sale Urban District Council and tradesmen who have given special terms to the Hospital; also Mr. Stuart for placing a Hospital collecting box on his weighing machine, Miss MacSweeney, V.A.D., and the Swallow Patrol of the Girl Guides, for Hospital work, Messrs. Turner for portage, Mr. Needham for wood-chopping.

The Board has again great pleasure in thanking the Matron, Miss Wragg, A.R.R.C., and her staff for their unwearying care, skill and kindness, as shown by the admirable condition of the Hospital premises and equipment, and the constant and grateful testimony of patients and their friends.

Future Development.

Two small observation wards and increased staff accommodation are undoubted needs. It is not yet decided whether to proceed with this work at once, or to wait a little for a larger scheme involving considerable reorganisation and greater expenditure. Suggestions are invited from all interested.

The need for honorary operating work for those patients who cannot afford a visiting surgeon's fee, has been apparent for some time. This has been met by the generous offer of Dr. Chisholm, of Sale, to act as honorary operating surgeon to suitable cases. The Board has accepted this offer for the sick poor of the district with many thanks, and has appealed for the services of an honorary anaesthetist.

Gifts in kind.

The following friends have made gifts to the Hospital. Every effort is made to render this list as complete as possible, but apologies and thanks are hereby tendered to any whose names have been inadvertently omitted.
